Four reasons why you should join me at the AIPAC Conference Policy this upcoming March: October 2015 is just another reminder of how vulnerable our beloved Israel is, being in the midst of the most volatile region that is a home for the worst terrorist groups. What saved Israel in the past and will ensure its future is its strategic alliance with the United States. By keeping this relationship strong and solid despite all the challenges, AIPAC protects the State of Israel. Every year AIPAC organizes a Policy Conference in Washington DC. All of them are important, but I believe that the one this year is crucial.

1. This is an election year, and even though the speaker list has not been published yet, I promise you that anyone who thinks he or she has a shot at being the next President of the United States will be there. You may think that you know where they stand vis-à-vis Israel, and that’s what I had thought before I went to the conference four years ago. But having the opportunity to listen to the candidates for an adequate amount of time (not a 30 second sound bite during a debate), taught me about the level of their understanding of the Middle East, the depth of their commitment to Israel and their plans for the future.

2. Some of you supported the Iran Deal and some of you were against it. The reality is that the deal passed, and considering the speed with which events unfold in the Middle East we have neither the time nor the resources to dwell on it. Now we need the pro-Israel community more than ever to ensure that the agreement is implemented as it was intended in a way that benefits both America and Israel. AIPAC needs our help so it can alert the public and prompt politicians to react appropriately should the Iranians violate their part of the agreement.

3. In the past decade we have seen organized campaigns around the world to harm Israel’s economy by promoting a policy of Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) against Israel. We must support AIPAC in its battle against international organizations and governments that attempt to isolate and delegitimize Israel. We must prevent BDS from sanctioning not only Israel but any company that plans to invest in Israel.

4. Unfortunately, our focus shifts to Israel mostly at times of struggle and conflicts. But when we attend the Policy Conference we are reminded of all that is so good and beautiful in our homeland. We learn what makes Israel a world leader in technology, as well as Israel’s unprecedented level of innovation and creativity attending the AIPAC Policy Conference we make our concerns for Israel's future evident to our leaders in Washington. I hope you will be able to join us on March 20-22, 2016 for the conference. For more details visit http://www.policyconference.org/.

By

CHIDUSH WORDS OF REFLECTION
Hal Baseman, Capital Campaign Chairperson

A particularly relevant excerpt from the book of “I really should have paid attention in Hebrew School”.

And Construction Moses went up to the township planning board for many, many weeks and when he returned he brought wisdom, permits, and these Ten Commandments of Chidush to the members of Temple Beth Am:

I. Thou shall improve thy Temple by making thy Sanctuary more intimate and inspirational, so that it can be a pleasant place of worship – where thou can see thy Rabbi without a telescope, even if it means thou cannot sit way in the back and pretend to be awake.

II. And thou shall divide the Social Hall into two, nay make that three Great rooms, so that thou can have many informative programs, fun events, meetings, Mah Jongg tournaments, dancing, parties, and whatever else thou want’th.

III. And thou shall make thy Lobby area look like a truly warm place of welcome rather than what-ever it looks like now.

IV. And thou shall expand thy Chapel to allow for crying babies and joyous children, so that their exhausted parents shall feel comfortable and the elders among us can stop complaining to thy Board.

V. And thou shall improve thy Sound and Visual System, so that thou can clearly better hear the beautiful music and singing and every word of thy Rabbi’s sermons and not have to guess as to what to complain about.

VI. And thou shall go forth and make thy Offices larger and more functional, so that thou hard working staff and volunteers can serve thou as a beacon of efficiency among the dark chaos of accounting, record keeping, phone answering and such.

VII. And thou shall expand the Youth Lounge, so thy youth can better lounge, thus maketh’ing Judaism important and memorable to thy lounging youth.

VIII. And thou shall do many other great things that thy President and his design committee hast specified, but to be honest – this humble scribe recording these commandments hast forgotten or not much paid attention to.

IX. Finally, thou shall Contribute greatly to the Capital Campaign in both Donation and cheerful spirit, for thou looks best when thou is generous and happy, understanding that without thy support none of this will get done. And if it is not done, then it is likely the earth shall open up and swallow thou, allowing thine enemies to build a Chipotle’s parking lot over the very spot where thou sunk into the ground. And thus the ducks and geese shall do their smelly, foul things right over where thou sunk into the ground for all of eternity – heh, heh, heh.

X. And one more thing, thou shall honor thy Voluntary Financial Commitment and give regular donations, so thy Temple can pay the electric bill in order for thou to see all of the greatness of what thou hast constructed.

If thou do’est what is commanded for this Chidush Capital Campaign, then thou shall be happy, good looking, and wise (if not a tiny bit gullible) for all of the days of thy life. And thou shall dwell in a great place of worship, community, and joy in the land of Jupiter forever more, unless thy spouse’s relatives decide to move here, in which case, relocating might not be a bad option for thou to consider...

And the members listened and the Chidush Capital Campaign was a Blessing. And there was much rejoicing. Yay.
FROM THE PRESIDENT

Mark Slifkin

Adult Education Program Catalog:
Big thanks to Carol Sleeper, Melanie Goldsobel and congregant Jamie Frankel for their efforts to produce a great adult education catalog. There are many educational things to do – I am sure you will find something that appeals to you. See you there! This is definitely a case of ‘if you build it they will come’ only in our case ‘if you provide it they will come’.

Sukkah Construction & TOS Garden Clean Up:
Once again under the leadership of congregant Paul Steidle and his construction crew of 14 volunteers, the Sukkah was built so our entire congregation could participate in the mitzvah of sitting in the sukkah, from our preschool & religious school children to our congregants who participated in the ritual of shaking the lulav prior to our Friday night Service. Kerrie Rhoades & Paula Deakter and their crew of 9 cleaned up the garden. Men’s Club representatives Mel Wolfe and Jack Tannenbaum provided food and drinks for all.

Anne Frank Exhibit:
WOW! Over 1,000 congregants, adults, school children visited TBA to see the Anne Frank Exhibit on loan from The Anne Frank Center USA. Thank you to Congregants Leah & Ed Frankel for arranging it and a special thank you to Carol Sleeper and congregants Stacey Runfola and Jonah Cohn for all their hard work in setting up the event. Also thanks to the Men’s Club and Sisterhood for being greeters and a special thank you to all the congregant docents who guided the visitors through the exhibit.

Your Chance to help the TBA Board:
The TBA Board needs your help! It is that time of the year when we form our Board Nominating Committee under the leadership of ex-officio Hal Baseman. Our Bylaws require 3 congregants in addition to 2 existing Board members. If you are interested in serving on this very important committee and the task of interviewing and nominating TBA members for the Board please let the office know by December 15th, 2015.

Interfaith Service:
The 19th Annual Thanksgiving Interfaith Service this year is at St. Peter Catholic Church on November 25, 2015. This is a fantastic interfaith event so please join us. On November 23, 2016 the Thanksgiving Interfaith Service will be held in TBA’s newly renovated Sanctuary, Social Hall, Chapel and Lobby.

CHIDUSH חידוש (Renewal):
By now you have read Hal Baseman’s “Words of Reflection” article on his interpretation of the Ten Commandments of Chidush. Now if you want to hear Rabbi Alon and Brian Cohn discuss the vision, see the renderings and ask questions, don’t miss the Chidush Open House on November 10, 2015 at 6:00pm – 7:30pm.

During November we plan to have a Project Chidush tab on our TBA website where you can follow our progress. http://www.templebetham.com.

Our Board member names are always listed in the Scribe – talk to them anytime about your thoughts, suggestions and ideas – our tag line ALL OF US TOGETHER only works if we have YOUR input!

Scribe articles are great and contain interesting tidbits about TBA – enjoy them. Call me at 561-222-8350 if you have ANY questions or just wish to chat. Email works also: mslifkin7@comcast.net.

B’Shalom

Mark Slifkin
As I am writing this article we are nearly finished with the Anne Frank: A History for Today exhibit at Temple Beth Am but by the time that you read this article the exhibit will be over and shipped to the next group lucky enough to be able to host the display. We have had almost 1,000 people already come through and see this educational and inspirational exhibit. In the next four days we still have 6 more group tours and 1 more Sunday when the exhibit is open to the public for viewing. It would be an understatement to say that this project was successful. I know that the Scribe should not always be the venue for thanking people but I think that I would be remiss if I didn’t take this opportunity to let the congregation know about the hard work and effort by so many that went into this project. When Rabbi Alon brought this project to the staff we thought that the timing was off, good idea, bad timing. But it was an opportunity that we couldn’t pass up. Thank you to Leah and Ed Frankel for bringing the idea to the Rabbi because without your suggestion there would be hundreds of children and adults in our community that would have missed the chance to learn more about intolerance and how it affects them. Thank you to Jonah Cohn for donating the funds as part of his Bar Mitzvah project so that we could have Hillary Eddy Stipelman from the Anne Frank Center in New York come and train the docents on the best way to showcase this traveling exhibit.

The night of the public grand opening saw 250 people from our community come out to hear Sylvia Spitalnick, also from the Anne Frank Center in New York, speak about the importance of this exhibit. There was plenty of food and a chance to view the exhibit. Leaders from our community were invited and many were able to join us including Jupiter town councilman Ilan Kaufer, executive director of the Commission for Jewish Education Charles Cohen, principal of the Meyer Academy Dr. Leslie Dangerfield, and the Palm Beach County School district’s coordinator of holocaust studies Maureen Carter, to name a few. This night couldn’t have happened without Stacey Runfola who stepped up to make sure that this project not only happened but that it happened right. Many nights were spent texting or emailing back and forth to make sure that every detail was taken care of. Letters had to be written, plans had to be made, and Stacey was always ready with “I can do that”.

Sisterhood and Men’s Club were asked to help us find ushers/greeters and Carole Levine worked the room wherever she was, talking up the exhibit and getting leads for volunteers. Jack Tenenbaum, also not so shy, found volunteers, organized them and scheduled them so that whenever we were open to the public there was someone to greet them. Thank you to the ushers/greeters: Jack Tenenbaum, Lois & Sandy Edelstein, Lenny Zysman, George Kissil, Ralph VanBaalen, Herb Gildenhorn, Lou Wolfson, Bob Hochman, Sandy Goldberg, David Elias, Joe & Carole Meshil, Samuel Gordon, and Maril Levy.

Thank you to Liz Cohn, Marcy Morris and Danna Cohen for designing educational materials to be used by the children who came to see the exhibit. The suitcase discussion, the exhibit scavenger hunt and the leaves for the Tree of Hope were perfect vehicles for making the exhibit interactive and enjoyable while still educational.

The biggest thank you goes to the docents who took the time to come to the training sessions, then went home and did more research and took their job of docent very seriously. No matter how prepared you are, you worry before your group tours. I know I did. Yet despite the butterflies and nerves they all were spectacular. It was my privilege to work with all of these docents and get to know them better. Huge thanks to the docents, in no particular order: Liz Cohn, Artie & Barbara Seltzer, Karen Feller, C.K. Tenenbaum, Nanci Hochman, Sheila Teitelbaum, Audrey Ades, Ilene Gerber, Barry Weiss, Nina Nemerofsky, Barbara Levy, Herb & Phyllis Cohen, Stacey Runfola, Sharon Bennett, Jonah Cohn, Sammie Fried, Brielle Cohen, and Brianna Steidle. Kol HaKavod!

SHABBAT SPEAKER, JASON O’CONNOR
Friday, November 6, 2015

Join us Friday night, November 6, 2015 during Shabbat Services for our guest speaker Jason O’Connor. Jason will be talking about the Legacy of Kristallnacht and the Jewish world.

The road to the Holocaust began with an idea, the idea was codified into law and cemented into action in the form of a mass pogrom that would forever change the fate of European Jewry. Today the Jewish world continues to face a similar threat and yet the world remains silent.

Jason has taught at Temple Beth Am for many adult education classes. He was born in South Africa and raised in Israel. Jason has an MA in Holocaust and Genocide Studies from Gratz College (2014), an MA in Near East and Judaic Studies from Brandeis University (2005) and a BA in Political Science and Judaic Studies from Florida Atlantic University (2002). He currently teaches high school social studies at North Broward Preparatory School and is an educator for the March of the Living Southern Region.

& Guest Speaker, Megan Feldman

When Megan Feldman Bettencourt found herself embittered after a breakup and a string of professional setbacks, she met an extraordinary man named Azim. Azim had forgiven the man who killed his beloved only son, and even reached out to the killer’s family. He truly seemed to be at peace.

As a veteran journalist, Megan recognized it for the amazing story it was. But as a self-admitted grudge-holder, she was perplexed. Was there something wrong with him, or was there something wrong with her? She wondered about our ability to forgive—why we have it at all, why we do it, and whether it can help us.

Megan Feldman is an award winning writer and adjunct professor of Journalism and Public Relations at Metropolitan State University. Her features have appeared in magazines such as Glamour, Details, Newsday and the Dallas Observer.

THANK YOU FROM CAROL CARSWELL

TO MY WONDERFUL TEMPLE BETH AM FAMILY:

Sundays, 12:00noon
Another High Holy Days season has come and gone. I’d like to take a moment to thank a few people.

Thank you to Cantor Jessica Turnoff Ferrari and Rabbinic Intern/Music Director Brett Tancer, along with their team for the inspirational music, which so perfectly set the mood of our Services. And a very special thank you to Rabbi Alon Levkovitz for his guidance through the Services, his well-positioned wit, and for his thoughtful sermons and messages – which provided the opportunity to pause, reflect, and realize the importance of Temple Beth Am’s High Holy Days Services.

Thank you Richard Remick for working behind the scene getting the building into shape for the High Holy Days. I can’t begin to describe what he does for us, so I won’t even try. Richard took a break this year from organizing the ushers and Bob Hochman graciously volunteered to take over this task. Thank you so much to Bob for organizing the ushers this year. Bob did a fantastic job (he even put up with my micro-managing!) and I’m happy to say he has already committed to doing it again next year. I would like to thank our wonderful crew of ushers and greeters: Audrey Ades; Hal Baseman; Gwen Berry; Lisa, Keren & Asher Blatt; Steve Carp; Lois & Sandy Edelstein; Mary & David Elias; Karen & Bob Feller; Mark Golzbein; Melanie Friedman; Melanie Goldsobel; Stan Goldberg; Nanci & Bob Hochman; Carole Levine; Maril Levy; Susan & John Marzina; Jody Minde; Richard Remick; Harvey Silverman; Carol Sleeper; Mark Slifkin; Cubby Steinhart; C.K. & Jack Tenenbaum; Vivian & Allegra Treves; Ralph VanBaalen and Eric Weiner.

Thank you, Gali Levkovitz and her crew for preparing holiday dinners on Erev Rosh Hashanah and Kol Nidre as well as lunch on Rosh Hashanah for those of us who “worked” the holidays. Delicious as always and very much appreciated!!!

Our landscaping looked pretty good this year! Thank you to Harvey Silverman with the help of Shawn Berry for getting our property in tip-top shape. Lots of sweat and hard work went into that job!

Thank you Sisterhood for taking care of all the details for Selichot and for supplying the gifts of apple chips, honey and a shofar to all the children after the Children’s Rosh Hashanah Service. They loved it!

Once again, we managed to pull off a pretty wonderful break-the-fast thanks to our wonderful resident chefs John Marzina & Eric Weiner and (might as well be a chef) Bruce Cohen. Thank you also to Alfredo Montes and his crew for being able to transform the back of the Social Hall within minutes from a place of worship to a hall feeding over 200 people. Amazing!

Thank you Sharon Holinstat for doing the Yizkor Book once again for us. My deepest thanks to you, Sharon, because I know this was the last thing you wanted to do, but you did it anyway and I am very grateful.

Thank you Debby Baker for once again handling our Food Drive benefitting The Alpert Jewish Family & Children’s Service. The Food Drive was a great success. Thank you also to our younger volunteers who helped load the food into the U-haul truck from Jupiter Auto Exchange. Crew leader Ben Levkovitz, Jonah Cohn, Naomi Cohn, Madison Cohen, Ephram Jacob and Max Maline. And thank you also to Marcy Isdaner, Mary Ellen Levin & Seth Ackerman for their help with the Food Drive.

Thank you to the entire staff at Temple Beth Am who worked above and beyond, every day, to help make TBA the best it can be. Thank you Melanie Goldsobel for her perpetual “No problem. It’s all good. We can get it done” philosophy during the busiest time of the year. Thank you to Margot Hauser who loves the craziness that we go through leading up to the High Holy Days and who I love working with. And thank you Carol Sleeper for being right beside me working diligently throughout the High Holy Days.

And last but not least, thank you to my wonderful husband, Hal Baseman. Without his support, I would not be able to do what I do for the High Holy Days. I thank God every day that I have him by my side. He keeps me sane. And he also does a great job in the parking lot—even when he gets abused by people who think he’s the hired-hand and not a volunteer sweating to help people find spots when there aren’t any available. I love you, Hal.

It takes the hands of many people to “run the show” and I know I must be forgetting someone! Please forgive me if I failed to mention you by name, but know that your help was greatly appreciated.
October was a busy month for the Men's Club. There were a number of activities and the planning for many more.

Before I forget, I want to thank those who built the Sukkah at the end of September. Well over a dozen Men's Club members (as well as non-Men's Club members) were on hand to construct the Sukkah and a few more to provide the building crew a continental breakfast. Thank you all.

Also, a major thank you to the many Men's Club members who acted as greeters for the Anne Frank Exhibit at the Temple. Thank you all for pitching in with little notice to make this a success. There are too many to thank in this limited space, but your efforts are appreciated.

The Northern Palm Beach County Coupon Books are still on sale in the Temple office. There are a limited number of books left. There are coupons for restaurants, sports activities, car rentals, and more. The money raised from the sale of these books helps the Men's Club provide programs for all members of the Temple.

On October 10, the Men's Club had another Dining Out at Brio in the Gardens Mall, Palm Beach Gardens. There were 40 participants. Brio included coffee free of charge (thank you Nanci Hochman), and the Men's Club provided cake for dessert. It was a great time.

We also sponsored a Football Outing on October 25 - the Dolphins vs Texans. The $50 cost included tickets and luxury bus transportation to and from the game. Needless to say, the event was sold out. If you missed this opportunity, watch for a spring baseball trip.

For the coming months, a number of events are planned:

1. There will be a Fishing Charter on Wednesday, November 18 at 4:30pm. Please watch for the announcement of the trip in the weekly E-News.

2. The Men's Club will sponsor a Veterans Day Breakfast program on Sunday November 15, at 9:30am, including guest speakers, breakfast (lox and bagels) and music. Cost is $10 per person. Last year's program was a huge success. RSVP by November 12 to Jack at jtenenbaum@att.net.

3. A Men's Club meeting will take place on Wednesday, November 11 at 6:30pm at the Temple. Please join us to help plan and run activities for the congregation.

Looking ahead to December and January:

The Men's Club and Sisterhood are jointly sponsoring The First Annual Traditional December 25th Event with Chinese food and a movie event for all ages. What better way to spend the 25th than that? (See page 17 in this Scribe for detail.)

There is also the Men's Club Annual Deli Dinner on Saturday, January 23, 2016. This event is always sold out. This year, there will be music, dancing, entertainment, and of course deli (corned beef, pastrami, brisket, etc. and all that goes with it). Watch for the announcement - don't miss this one.

In the spring, the Men's Club will sponsor fishing trips, a baseball outing or two, and joint events with the Sisterhood, including theater, dining, etc. We have a busy year planned.

The JCC will be mailing invitations to all TBA women, so be on the lookout for it and please join your TBA sisters for a terrific experience. The guest speaker is Jo Ivester, talking about her memoir The Outskirts of Hope. Cost is $36 for Sisterhood Members, and $42 for guests.

Thank you Shelley!

According to Nathaniel Philbrick, the historian who wrote The Mayflower, wild turkey, deer, bluefish and cod were on the menu as was plenty of beer, since the barley crop was good that year! They had a traditional English harvest celebration, but the holiday of Thanksgiving was not proclaimed until 1863, when President Lincoln felt a cathartic celebration of nationhood would help during the Civil War.

Men’s Club and Sisterhood invite you, your family and friends to attend TBA's First Annual Traditional December 25th Event, on Friday, December 25th, from 3:30pm to 7:00pm. Movies, children’s activities and, of course, Chinese Food, will fill the hours with fun, friendship and food. Only 100 tickets are available for this event so get your reservations and checks in early. Please see the flyer on page 17 in this Scribe and in the TBA lobby. Services will begin at 7:00pm, after dinner.

The planning committee for this event is seeking additional volunteers to help on December 25th. Please call Lois Remick at 627-7736 or write lorem47@bellsouth.net to offer your services. Kulanu!

Calling all women who enjoy knitting, crocheting, and needlework: We invite you to join TBA's Knitting Club. The group will meet at TBA on the second and fourth Monday of the month at 11:00am (but there is no meeting on Dec. 14th) from now through May. This month we meet on November 9th and 23rd. Sit and stitch and chat with friends old and new. Please call Leona Usher at (561) 694-8298 or email her at lju561@gmail.com for more info about this Sisterhood club. Thank you Leona!

Here is our upcoming schedule:

November 2, 2015: ALL THE LIGHT WE CANNOT SEE by Anthony Doerr - Marie-Laure lives with her father in Paris near the Museum of Natural History, where he works as the master of its thousands of locks. When she is six, Marie-Laure goes blind and her father builds a perfect miniature of their neighborhood so she can memorize it by touch and navigate her way home. When she is twelve, the Nazis occupy Paris and father and daughter flee to the walled citadel of Saint-Malo, where Marie-Laure’s reclusive great-uncle lives in a tall house by the sea. With them they carry what might be the museum’s most valuable and dangerous jewel. In a mining town in Germany, the orphan Werner grows up with his younger sister, enchanted by a crude radio they find. Werner becomes an expert at building and fixing these crucial new instruments, a talent that wins him a place at a brutal academy for Hitler Youth, then a special assignment to track the resistance. More and more aware of the human cost of his intelligence, Werner travels through the heart of the war and, finally, into Saint-Malo, where his story and Marie-Laure’s converge.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL
Alissa Frankel, Education Director

You probably find yourself often asking your child “how was your day today?” And get answers along the line of “fine” or “good”. Which doesn’t really tell you a whole lot. And there is a whole lot going on in our school!

So let’s try to get at least a full sentence. Here are some potential thought-provoking questions that may lead to some insightful details of their day.

1. What was the best thing that happened at school today?
2. Tell me one thing you learned today.
3. When were you the happiest today?
4. Tell me something good that happened today.
5. What do you think you should do/learn more at school?
6. If you got to be the teacher tomorrow, what would you do?
7. What is something new you learned today?
8. What challenged you today?
9. When did you feel most proud of yourself today?
10. What is one thing you hope to learn before the school year is over?

The answers you get may surprise you. Our students work hard while they are with us and we truly enjoy when we see things “click” and hope we can foster your children sharing their experiences they enjoyed at Temple Beth Am with you at home, too.

FAMILY SHABBAT EXPERIENCE - Friday, Nov. 13th
Danna Cohen, Jewish Life Activities Coordinator

Later this month many of you are going to come together with your loved ones around the dinner table. You will probably engage in time honored family traditions; from carving the turkey, to watching the big game, and if your family is anything like mine, that moment will come - the one you’ll groan about but secretly know is the most special moment of the holiday- when everyone goes around and says what they are thankful for. This year at Temple Beth Am we are starting something new that I hope will become just as much of a tradition: The Family Shabbat Experience for kindergarten through sixth grade.

Passing our traditions from one generation to the next is a hallmark of Judaism, as Deuteronomy tells us, “You shall teach them to your children.” We know that the best way to teach something to our children is by modeling it, and Judaism provides us an opportunity to pass on our traditions every week with the arrival of Shabbat, but often life gets in the way and before you know it the weekend has come and gone. Friday and Saturday will always come automatically, but Shabbat only takes place when we make it happen.

The Family Shabbat Experience is designed to allow the entire family to come together and connect around the dinner table, learn together about our traditions, and enjoy a meaningful and uplifting start to Shabbat. We can bake the challah and bless the candles in class, but it is the time spent celebrating with family that creates the memories that inform who our children will become, and what they will pass on to the next generation.

To paraphrase Rabbi A.J. Heschel, to educate the child without including the entire family is like attempting to heat a home with all the windows open- or here in Florida cool a home in the middle of summer! I hope you and your family will join us Friday, November 13th at 6:00pm at Temple Beth Am, to learn Jewish, live Jewish, and start new traditions together.
YOUTH GROUP

Laura Williams, Youth Director

Meet our 2015 – 2016 JAMTY Youth Board

JAMTY is our high school Temple Youth Group (TYG). We have had a great start to our school year with so many events still to come! JAMTY is led by an amazing Youth Board, which puts time into planning, recruiting, and finding new ways to connect our Temple’s youth in meaningful ways. They are all outstanding leaders in their own right, and here is a chance to get to know them a little better!

JAMTY Executive Board Hannah Rubin – President: I am a junior at Dwyer High School, and this is my 3rd year in North American Federation of Temple Youth (NFTY). This summer, I was lucky to attend the NFTY URJ Kutz Camp. There I discovered my passion for youth group and developed my leadership skills. When not at Temple, I compete in debate tournaments, cheer on the Miami Dolphins, or cuddle with my dog.

Emily Minsky – Programming Vice President: I’ve been a JAMTY member since 9th grade and have been attending NFTY events since my freshman Spring Kallah! I went to Kutz Camp (NFTY’s summer home) this past summer and gained tons of exciting program ideas that I can't wait to bring to JAMTY! A few things about me is I love debate, sushi, baking, and of course Temple Beth Am. If you don't know me yet, come up and say hi! I'd love to chat about all things JAMTY and NFTY related!

Noa Kroyter – Communications Vice President: After discovering NFTY last year at my first event (Fall Kallah), I absolutely fell in love with the organization. I attended URJ Kutz Camp this summer for a month of leadership training. I currently attend Dreyfoos High School of the Arts as a sophomore communications major and I enjoy writing on my school’s newspaper and making films.

Maya Levkovitz – Membership Vice President: I am a sophomore at Dreyfoos School of the Arts, where I focus on journalism and speech and debate. I am excited to welcome new members and create an inclusive and fun community for all JAMTY members.

Abby White – Religious and Cultural Vice President: My job as RCVP is to incorporate Judaism into our events and programs. When I am not at Temple with JAMTY I am at Jupiter High School participating in the state champion Marching Band. Being part of youth group for the majority of my life has impacted me so much in indescribable ways and I can't wait for what my last two years with JAMTY will bring.

Brianna Steidle – Social Action Vice President: I started on the JAMTY board two years ago, and it didn't take long for me to find my niche: community outreach. My goal as SAVP is to bring community service opportunities and chances to make a difference. When not at Temple, I care for the furred and feathered residents of Busch Wildlife and A Second Chance Animal Rescue. I photograph, design, and volunteer at the Lupus Foundation of America.

Aaron Kovner – Financial Vice President: This is my second year in a row as the FVP for JAMTY, although in seventh and eighth grade I was also the FVP. Additionally, this is my second year attending NFTY events. My interests include running track, where this is my sixth year. I am currently on the varsity team at Jupiter High School, as well as the captain of my track team.

Roni Kissil – 9th Grade Representative: I’m on the board because I love Temple, being with my friends, learning more about my religion and connecting with other kids. I just got into JAMTY where I’ve learned a lot about teamwork and solving problems. I’ve also learned how to step-up and to say what I think. Besides being on the board I love cats, swimming, and hanging with my friends.

General Board
Jared Freedland – Upperclassmen Representative
Amanda Gelman – JAMTY JR Liaison
Arthur Gelman – Song Leader

The Book Fair is Coming!

Reading and literacy are such an important part of all of our One Schoolers’ daily environments. From honing their listening skills to learning letter recognition, sight words and about our favorite authors, our children are immersed in their favorite stories every day they are at school.

Our first Book Fair of the 2015-2016 school year is set to begin Monday, November 2nd and continue until Sunday, November 8th. Please come by and let your child tell you all about his or her much loved and most wanted books! And books make great presents too!

Please join us for breakfast on November 2nd at our Book Fair Kickoff Breakfast in the Temple lobby. We look forward to seeing you there!

How Does Our Garden Grow?

Our garden has become a place where our children learn lessons about nature; about planting, growing and recycling, about sustainability and food sources, even though they do not yet know what some of those words mean. They learn about Tikun Olam, the mizvah of repairing the earth.

Fall is not only a season for the start of a new year as we celebrate Rosh Hashanah, or a new school year for our One Schoolers, but also a time for us to plant and begin the cycle of growth again in our beautiful garden.

We Have Much to Celebrate!

The One School children and their families have been so busy this fall with much to celebrate! Thank you to everyone who came out to one or more of our family celebrations like:

Rosh Hashanah
Sukkot
Kid’s Shabbat

More fun to come…

Scott Boord Memorial Thanksgiving Program & Luncheon

On Monday, November 23rd, The One School will once again act as hosts to some other local preschool children, as they join us for our annual Thanksgiving program and luncheon. This is one of the most extraordinary programs of the school year, as we share our bounty with families who might otherwise go without this holiday. The One Schoolers tell the story of the first Thanksgiving through musical performance. This program embodies the Jewish value of “Hachnasat Orchim,” or welcoming guests. After our program, all of the children will share a traditional Thanksgiving meal together.

Thank you to Amy Wood for once again acting as our Thanksgiving Program Chair. Parent volunteers are needed for coordination, set-up and preparation of the day of the event. Please let Amy know if you are available to volunteer. We hope that you will join and help us create a memorable event for everyone!

Amy Russell, take strength from our strength and find comfort in our positive thoughts coming your way.

NOVEMBER 7, 2015
B’NEI MITZVAH OF
MAX & JULES POPIEL

With great love and pride we invite our synagogue family to join us as our children Max and Jules are called to the Torah as B’nei Mitzvah on Saturday, November 7, 2015.

Max is in 8th grade and Jules in 7th grade at Independence Middle School where they are both part of the Pre-Business Academy. Max enjoys playing sports, especially baseball for the Jupiter Hammerheads. He also enjoys listening to music, watching Netflix and hanging out with his family and friends. Jules enjoys playing tennis, basketball and especially soccer for Massive Soccer Academy. She also loves listening to music, reading, and creative writing.

Max and Jules decided to work as a team on their mitzvah project to collect school supplies for children that cannot afford to buy them. They partnered with Grove Park Elementary School and came up with the slogan “Give Back With Backpacks”. They set up a page on the website Go Fund Me and worked with family, friends, and local businesses to raise money and collect supplies. They also reached out to their former elementary school teachers to help out. With everyone’s support, they were able to donate 60 backpacks filled with school supplies totaling over $3,000 to Grove Park Elementary School.

We are so excited for their special weekend. Thank you to Rabbi Alon, Brett Tancer, Cantor Jessica, and all of the teachers and staff at Temple Beth Am for helping Max and Jules prepare for this day.

Ashley and Jon Popiel
Molly Eloise Fried, a vibrant young woman of uncommon empathy and compassion, will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on November 14, 2015. The daughter of Jill and Steven Fried, Molly is a 7th grader at the Benjamin School, where she has fashioned an outstanding record of scholastic achievement.

Molly is an enthusiastic gymnast, volleyball player and basketball player, a longtime member of the Student Council and a member of Benjamin’s winning “Odyssey of the Mind” team. She is a foodie in the making (vegetarian only!) and an avid fan of Alton Brown and other cooking shows. Summers find Molly at Camp Timber Tops in Greeley, PA, where she has spent 5 summers (and counting!) with her friends and camp family. Winters find Molly searching out the double black steeps and bumps in Big Sky, MT and Park City, UT, where she earned the nickname “Mad Bomber”. Truly, Molly leads a life rich with adventure and opportunity.

Molly has studied hard with Rabbi Alon, Brett Tancer, Debbie Baseman and the entire Temple Beth Am family. Thanks for leading such a wonderful organization.

As parents, we are extremely proud of Molly, especially in her attitude towards her friends and family, where she practices a level of kindness not often found in adults, much less children. She is well on her way to leading a life of achievement, service, love and joy. We love her very much.

Jill and Steve Fried

It is with great pride and joy that our son, Michael Alexander Grogins (“Mikey”) will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on November 21, 2015.

Mikey is in the seventh grade at Independence Middle School where he is an honors student in the Pre Law Academy. Mikey loves to play sports. He plays travel baseball with the Jupiter Hammerheads, Mustang Football and basketball with JTAA. When he’s not playing sports, he is gaming on Playstaton and watching sports on TV. He, as well as the rest of his family, are avid Yankee fans. Mikey has two older siblings, Brittany and Jake. We are so proud of Mikey!

We are very grateful for Brett Tancer, Rabbi Alon, Cantor Jessica and all of the teachers and staff at Temple Beth Am for their guidance and help in preparing Mikey for his Bar Mitzvah. We also would like to thank Paula Deakter and the preschool staff who handled Mikey with kid gloves and, where Mikey made some great, lifelong friends!

With gratitude and Love
Debbie and Danny Grogins, Brittany, Jake and Mikey
We are very proud that our daughter Marni Strauss will be called to the Torah to become a Bat Mitzvah on November 21, 2015. Marni is in 7th grade at The Meyer Academy. She LOVES playing volleyball and enjoys spending time with her family and friends.

For her Mitzvah project she has started a fundraising foundation called “KIND HEARTS” to raise money for families with kids battling all types of cancer. The funds collected will go towards helping the families of these young patients pay for medical and other associated expenses that can become overwhelming for the families. KIND HEARTS was created after learning about one family’s struggle after their daughter was diagnosed with a rare, hard-to-treat brain tumor. It has put a tremendous strain on this one family, and Marni can’t imagine how many more families like this are dealing with the similar financial burdens of having a sick child. She will be selling bracelets, T-shirts, and water bottles.

Thank you to Brett Tancer, Cantor Jessica and Rabbi Alon for your support and guidance in preparing Marni for this important milestone. We are also so thankful to the Meyer Academy and all the teachers that have had such a profound impact on Marni since kindergarten. We are so excited for this special day.

Heather & William Strauss
